

Course: Introduction to Chinese

Lecturer: Alexis Chen

Ms. Chen received a bachelor's degree in Finance and Economics from Renmin University in Beijing, People's Republic of China. She used to be an anchor with CCTV and BTV hosting finance programs. Ms. Chen is now a Chinese instructor and tutor for the Huaxia Great New York Chinese School of SUNY College. She has been teaching Mandarin Chinese to all groups of students for more than 5 years, ranging from 4-years old children to adults. Ms. Chen has experience in teaching students with diverse background and learning pace. She always ensures students to achieve learning goals by adjusting her teaching plan to fit the students and assisting each student individually when they need help. Ms Chen will also host other more advanced Chinese classes with topics in Finance, Technology, and Healthcare.

Syllabus:

What you will learn in this course:

- Week 1 - Pinyin 1 & Introduction to Chinese names
- Week 2 - Pinyin 2 & Numbers
- Week 3 - Pinyin 3 & Hobbies
- Week 4 - Pinyin 4 & Order in Time and Places
- Week 5 - Pinyin 5 & Weathers
- Week 6 - Pinyin 6 & Making Plans
- Week 7 - Occupations
- Week 8 - Locations
- Week 9 - Family
- Week 10 - Travel

Class Time:

7:00 PM – 8:30PM Wednesday

Registration:

<https://www.nyibt.org/registration>

